New Course Proposal - Second Reading

CHN 1A Elementary Mandarin 5 Units, 5 Lec, 2.5 Lab

A comprehensive introduction to elementary Mandarin as a foreign language for students with no background in Mandarin. Emphasis is on listening, speaking and reading Mandarin as a medium of communication within a rich cultural framework, resulting in an active vocabulary of no less than 500 Chinese words and 100 phrases and idiomatic expressions. Writing and translation will be introduced. This course corresponds to one year of high school study.

CHN 1B Elementary Mandarin 5 Units, 5 Lec, 2.5 Lab

A continuation of Chinese 1A, an introduction to elementary Mandarin as a foreign language, this is a second level of elementary Mandarin. Equal emphasis is on listening, speaking, reading, and writing. Students will acquire an active vocabulary of no less than 1000 Chinese words, and 200 phrases and idiomatic expressions in rich cultural context. Mandarin will be the primary medium of instruction.

FRNH 2A Intermediate French 5 Units, 5 Lec, 2.5 Lab

In French 2A, students further develop skills acquired in first year French: they review grammatical structures and expand their vocabulary; they increase their communicative ability through the reading and discussion of excerpts of French literature and cultural texts of various francophone countries and written composition.

LIB 735 Library Research: Research Basics 0 Units, 6 Hours

Students jump start their research skills with this introductory course and learn how to supplement their basic course readings with the library's extensive array of materials, including electronic books, print materials, audio books, and specialized magazine databases. Students save time, learn to be "information literate," and be able to mine for quality information.

LIB 736 Library Research: Avoid Plagiarism 0 Units, 6 Hours

Designed for entry-level student research. Beginners are introduced to rules of college research, strategies to avoid accidental plagiarism, Gavilan's plagiarism policy, best methods of planning and organizing notes and supporting your research topic.

PE 81 Kickboxing for Fitness .5 - 1 Unit, 1.5 - 3.0 Lab

This course utilizes basic kickboxing techniques and physical conditioning in a cardio exercise program. May be repeated three times for credit. This course has the option of a letter grade or pass/no pass.

Modification of Existing Course - Form C

PHIL 9 Philosophy of Religion 3 Units, 3 Lec

Change Number:

FROM PHIL 6B

TO: PHIL 9

Justification: Philosophy of Religion does not need to be taken in succession with Philosophy 6A, Comparative Religions, and it may impact enrollment. It is an attempt not to be confusing.

General update.

Justification: The State Chancellor's Office has mandated that arranged hours need to be supervised by an instructor who meets minimum qualifications in the instructional area. Using face to face faculty is expensive and does not augment the present effective methods of lab instruction. The hybrid model allows instructors to supervise the labs and meet State requirements while continuing to offer them is the way that is most pedagogically sound for the discipline.
