

Do you want to change the world? A Social Justice Studies Associates Degree for Transfer is your how-to kit!

This inspiring Associates Degree for Transfer emphasizes interdisciplinary study of the world combined with experience serving the community. Students who want to go into social work, teaching, law, politics and government, activism, international work, public health, business, the arts and humanities, and non-profit advocacy need practical and analytical social justice skills. Become a life-long informed voter, consumer, advocate, donor, and participant in your town, nation, and world!

Upon successful completion of this program, students will be able to:

1. Recognize and analyze the gap between local, national, and global realities, and the ideals of democracy and justice
2. Apply history and theory to understand past and present movements for social change
3. Experiment with a variety of social justice methods in students' own communities, evaluating the impacts not only upon the community but upon themselves
4. Envision and assess national and global social justice approaches to contemporary challenges
